Welcome

FROM THE PRESIDENT

WEDS TO FRI
NOV
2016

As entries officially open for 2016, it's my great pleasure to welcome you to the 154th year of the Canterbury A&P Show. I feel very proud to be a part of the largest and most prestigious agricultural and pastoral show in the country and look forward to another world-class event in November.

November is a fantastic time to be a Cantabrian. Summer is on its way and New Zealand Cup and Show Week brings a festival atmosphere to Christchurch and the region – celebrating all that our region has to offer.

Thank you to the Canterbury A&P Association's Board, Committees, Volunteers and event management company (TDM Events) who have already been hard at work behind the scenes working on Membership, planning and of course bringing together this publication. We look forward to welcoming past and future competitors and exhibitors to this year's Show and encourage you to get your entries in early for the many competitions on offer.

After a long involvement with the Beef Cattle Section, I'm very pleased to announce that this section will have Royal Event status for the 2016 Canterbury A&P Show. This is a great opportunity for exhibitors to pick up prestigious Royal awards and I encourage you to enter these classes.

It was fantastic to see a 15% increase in cattle entries last year and we hope to continue to grow this section. Our feature breed for 2016 is Limousin and the section will be judged by Mr Alex McDonald from Australia. We also look forward to welcoming Mr William Bedell from England – he'll be judging the Beef All Breeds. We count ourselves very lucky that we're able to attract such a high standard of judges from New Zealand and further afield in all sections across the Show.

Aside from Beef Cattle we're lucky to host some of the best equestrian, sheep, dairy, pig, llama and alpaca competitions in New Zealand – along with many other wonderful competitions. You can find information about the shearing and woolhandling, dog trials, goats, poultry, vintage machinery and wool sections under "Specialist" from page 78. There's also information in there about our feature competitions including the Mint Lamb Competition, Dakins Ambassador of the Year, Heartland Bank Young Auctioneer and RICOH Trade Exhibitor of the Year Awards.

Our youth-focussed competitions continue to go from strength to strength. I look forward to seeing these young people - the future of the Association and the industry - compete at the Show this year.

We're excited to be growing the Led Steer Competition this year. Along with the yearling class, a new prime steer class has been introduced and entrants will have the option to put their exhibits forward to be sold at the Heartland Bank Young Auctioneers Competition.

This is another competition that is going from strength to strength, and with the introduction of a live auction for the first time this year – it's only going to get better!

I'm also really looking forward to attending our first ever live wool auction on-site on Thursday morning in the Wool and Fibre Feature Pavillion. This event will run in the same manner as regular wool sales and is being well supported by brokers and buyers.

Those not competing in the Show this year will be able to enjoy the Woodchopping complete with new seating and the Endurocross motorbiking competition – both huge successes in 2015. We're also very excited to be giving our hospitality areas a bit of a revamp. Watch this space for more information about the brand new Food Pavillion and Wine Village, and with new sponsors coming on board for the Baa Baa Bar this year - it will be well worth a look too.

As I'm sure you're all aware, new Health and Safety legislation came into force in April. As an Association we have been working hard over the past few years to comply with these new laws and we encourage you as exhibitors to be vigilant in following all Health and Safety Rules and Recommendations put forward by the Association. This information will be sent to all exhibitors in October.

As usual we'll have over 500 trade exhibitors on-site to showcase their businesses, products and services to over 100,000 Show Visitors. It's great to see so many returning and some great new exhibitors too. Sites are selling fast – so if you haven't booked your site already you better be in quick.

Members are the foundation of any organisation and the Canterbury A&P Association prides itself in the strength of its membership. I encourage you to join our Association to be part of the largest Show in New Zealand and take advantage of some fantastic benefits. Members need not live on a farm, you just need an interest in agriculture and the rural way of life.

Finally I would like to thank all of the volunteers that work tirelessly behind the scenes to bring us the largest event in New Zealand's Showing calendar – you should all take great pride in the event you deliver every year.

See you all in November

Certainty

Nature is full of surprises. Insurance shouldn't be.

vero

When a windstorm damaged Canterbury irrigators in 2013, we provided full replacement value, not the depreciated amount. Vero makes insurance work harder for customers, on and off the farm.
