Annex 1 - Code of Conduct

WELFARE OF THE HORSE

The following is a Code of Conduct based on that promoted by the FEI, but includes a few minor changes to reflect the New Zealand environment.

Code of Conduct

1. In all Equestrian sports the horse must be considered paramount.
2. The well-being of the horse shall be above the demands of breeders, trainers, riders, owners, dealers, organisers, sponsors or officials.
3. All handling and veterinary treatment must ensure the health and welfare of the horse.
4. The highest standards of nutrition, health, sanitation and safety shall be encouraged and maintained at all times.
5. Adequate provision must be made for ventilation, feeding watering and maintaining a healthy environment when horses are being transported.
6. Emphasis should be placed on increasing education in training and equestrian practices and promoting scientific studies in equine health
7. In the interests of the horse, the fitness and competence of the rider shall be regarded as essential.
8. All riding and training methods must take account of the horse as a living entity and must not include any technique considered by the ESNZ to be abusive.
9. The ESNZ will establish adequate controls in order that all persons and bodies under their jurisdiction respect the welfare of the horse.
10. The National and International Rules and Regulations in Equestrian sport regarding the health and welfare of the horse must be adhered to, not only during national and international events, but also in training. Competition Rules and Regulations shall be continually reviewed to ensure such welfare is upheld.

By entering or attending the National Young Horse Jumping Championships competition, you accept that you may appear within differing media streams that are on location covering the event. Your behaviour at the event and within the competition arena is at your discretion and is your responsibility. Please note that there might be live streaming at the event therefore the camera is on throughout the day.”

IMPORTANT - NEW HEALTH AND SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

As many of you may be aware, there are new requirements for Health and Safety resting with the show organisers and venue. These are now included in the TERMS AND CONDITIONS that you digitally sign off as the final stage in completing your online entry. Please READ.
