

The Showing Day Out

Presented by Masterton A&P Assn

The Showing Day out is a fun day for everyone to come give Showing a go! Fun rings, fun judges with a fun atmosphere for everyone and NO HEIGHT CERTIFICATES required. Plaiting is optional.

We want to encourage more local riders to come out and experience the show ring. Our judges are all experienced 'Showies' and there to encourage our sport. This day is open to all breeds and colours, just come have a fun day out!

Each Section has an

- 'Intro to Showing' Class which is for Riders who have never placed in an RAS Show Ring. It is not for experienced riders on a green horse.
- The Green Horses Class is for horses who have never placed in a ridden RAS Showing Class. This class will have no cantering.
- There may be combinations who can enter both the Intro to Showing and Green Horse class.

This Show is also being run as a Fundraiser for our 'Masterton A&P Showing Championship' help on the 19 & 20 February 2022. This event was well supported last year and included everyone from Hacks, Gypsy Cobs and Pony Club Riders with all competitors having the opportunity to win a dress rug as a Champion.

We have big plans for our next show and if you would like to be involved in this event or have some ideas, please let us know.

Camping & yards/stabling available the night prior as required & can be booked when entering. All day competitors are required to use a yard, no tying to Floats or Trucks. Please leave these yards and surrounding area's clean & tidy.

The Sections

The showing sections can sound daunting so here is a fun breakdown of each:

Saddle Hunter (Horse or Pony) – the Saddle Hunter is a good looking brick layer or Dwayne ‘The Rock’ Johnson. Looks like a Greek god, built like a brick sh!t house but still handsome and knows how to boogie. They have a hard working attitude and look like they could carry you all day without breaking a sweat.

Riding Horse – the Riding Horse is a good looking businessman (or women) or a bit like George Clooney. Very well mannered, polite, dresses immaculately and knows how to get noticed on the dance floor. The Riding Horse might be a little more ‘dad bod’ than the Hack but they have a great head and is the one you wouldn’t mind taking home to Mum & Dad.

Park Hack / Hack or Show Pony – These are the ballerinas of the horse world. They have model looks, legs to die & lovely conformation. They like to be centre of attention, owns the dance floor & can have more bling or make-up than a drag queen.

First Year Ridden – open to all children under 10 years and is a walk / trot ring only.

Led Rein – open to all led children 7 years and under. This is a walk / trot ring.

Pleasure Horse or Pony – they might not have the model legs or the statue of The Rock however it doesn’t mean they also can’t have a fun day out. The Pleasure mount is just that, a pleasure to ride and own.
